“It’s Friday, but Sunday’s coming!” This statement reminds us that although things looked bad on the Friday when Jesus was crucified, everything changed when He arose from the grave.

Likewise, things may look bad for you right now-- you may face unemployment, unpaid bills, unkind people, and an uncertain future. But as a Christian, you can always say, “Sunday’s coming!” Because of Christ’s resurrection, your situation will one day be far better than it is now. As Romans 13:11 says, “Now our salvation (ultimate salvation in heaven) is nearer than when we first believed.” In fact, in Christ you have a certain future!

Resurrection Sunday is the day to celebrate! Many people who don’t go to church regularly will be looking around for a church to attend on Easter. Why not take the initiative and invite them to worship with us? We will offer a special gift to each guest: if they will turn in their pink guest registration card immediately after the service, we will give them Max Lucado’s booklet, Imagine Your Life Without Fear, based in his book, Fearless.

On Sunday night, April 11, we will have a joint service with our Hispanic mission church. Pastor Rodriguez will baptize two new believers, the Hispanic praise band will play one song, and I will preach, with translation by Pastor Rodriguez.

On April 17-24, we will have a mission team going to New Orleans for the third year in a row to repair homes damaged by Hurricane Katrina. Pray for this ministry as we touch lives for Christ.

Exciting things are happening at FBC Rincon! Please check out the rest of this newsletter and find your place of service.

See you Sunday with a Bible in your hand and the Risen Son shining on your face!

Your pastor, Bob Rogers
